

There are six states in hilly & mountain regions but only two in Terai even though almost 50% of population lives in Terai. So, 10 members will represent almost 50% of the population.

At least one-third of central/federal legislature needs to consist of women.

At least 40% of local bodies needs to consist of women.

First Past the Post system will fail to ensure a diverse representation at local level.